Coconino Community College

Policy 27-00 Emeritus Status

Sponsor: District Governing Board

Policy

The District Governing Board may confer emeritus status upon retired full-time faculty, staff, and administrators; former Presidents; and former District Governing Board Members in recognition of distinguished service, sustained contributions, and professional achievement benefiting Coconino Community College. Emeritus status is an honorary distinction and is not automatically conferred based upon retirement or length of service. The District Governing Board retains sole authority to confer emeritus status. The President shall establish procedures governing eligibility, nomination, review, recommendation, and privileges associated with emeritus status.
