Policy

Coconino Community College will initiate and maintain programs and efforts required under the Americans with Disabilities Act and other applicable federal and state laws and regulations that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability. No qualified individual will be denied access to, participation in, or the benefits of any program, activity, or service offered by the College, because of their disability. The College will comply with applicable building standards for existing, new, and remodeled College-owned structures, and support the ongoing and collaborative process of providing reasonable accommodation to applicants, employees, students, and the general public using or seeking to use College facilities and services.
